Winter Tales: Stories of Hope and Light
Karen Rae Kraut makes a special holiday return visit to the Downtown Branch of the Riverside Public Library. Her international stories of kindness and generosity are perfect holiday entertainment for families of any culture. Karen is a storyteller, singer, teaching artist and workshop presenter. Her shows include adaptations of world folktales, music, songs, movement and her own special brand of audience participation.
Thursday 1 December at 6:30

Want to help the Library and de-clutter your house? Bring books and movies (in great condition) and (newish) magazines to your local branch* to donate to the Friends of the Riverside Library. Whether your books are added to the Library's collection or sold through each branch's used book sale, they're needed, so bring them in today!
 *Take large loads to the Downtown Library.

The Riverside Public Library Foundation provides funding to the Riverside Public Library for its FREE exciting and educational children's programs plus books, computers, and media available for the entire family. Make a contribution at <http://www.riversidelibraryfoundation.org>
